ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) is the global body for professional accountants. We aim to offer business-relevant, first-choice qualifications to people of application, ability and ambition around the world who seek a rewarding career in accountancy, finance and management.

ACCA in numbers

ACCA is the world's fastest-growing gateway to the accountancy profession.

We've been creating opportunities for people for more than 110 years

198,000 members

180 countries

486,000 students

We work with 7,291 approved employers around the world

ACCA joins forces with CA ANZ

To make our qualifications even more valuable, we've partnered with Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.

This strategic alliance strengthens our reach and influence as we work to shape the future of accountancy. By sharing our expertise and combining our resources, we can better support both our students and members around the world.

Get a finance qualification that will take you places.

ACCA's world-class training will give you the edge when it comes to advancing your business career. Recognised and respected, it's a qualification that says you are serious about finance and that you understand the latest developments shaping the way business operates.

Whatever field you dream of working in, whatever your passion, you can help to drive it forward as an ACCA finance professional.

Our members and students are recognised across the globe as business thinkers and strategists who power the organisations they work for to excel. So whether you have your sights set on business, the film industry, holiday resorts, space travel or fashion, the strategic finance skills you'll gain with ACCA will open the doors to the most exciting and fulfilling roles.

Across the globe

And because ACCA qualifications are recognised and respected all over the world, you can have a truly international career. What's more, when you join us, you become part of a global network of finance professionals – who will always be on hand to share their knowledge and best practice.

So where will you go?

With ACCA, you can travel anywhere in the world. And because we offer an incredibly flexible approach, you can take many different routes to the career of your dreams. You can keep your studies broad and options open, or you can focus on particular subjects like:

- Advanced Financial Management
- Advanced Performance Management
- Advanced Taxation
- Advanced Audit
- Advanced Assurance.

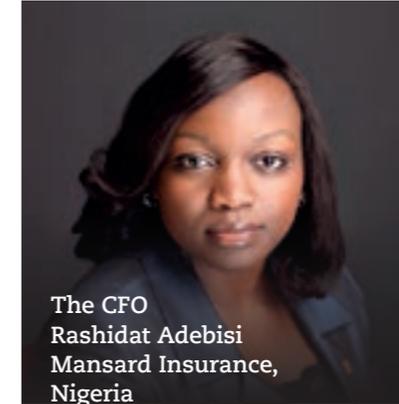

Employers trust ACCA because we equip our students with the business acumen and the practical skills that's needed in today's business environment. ACCA-qualified professionals are sought after across industries and sectors.

We're with you at every step

However you decide to build your future, you can be sure that we'll be right there with you at every step, giving you the support, knowledge and resources you need to succeed.

On the ACCA journey: Rashidat, Kirsty and Vijender

"ACCA is not just about accounting, it's about business management too. The qualification exposes you to all the relevant subjects, providing you with the foundation to business and a successful career."

"I chose ACCA because it's about more than just financial reporting. ACCA covers a wide breadth of subjects which I believe will stand me in good stead for the rest of my career in banking."

"ACCA is a global body and employers value the qualification, which means no matter where you go, employment is never an issue."

Worth knowing...

In a recent survey

95%

of employers stated that ACCA was a respected brand for professional qualification.

A leading qualification for a changing world.

The best gets better still... To help you stay ahead in an ever-changing world, our qualification has evolved to become ACCA Qualification – the future.

This unique qualification will help you become the strategic forward-thinking finance professional the world needs. It will increase your employability. It will equip you with the right blend of skills to have immediate impact and add value in the workplace. It will empower you to thrive in a time of constant technological change and growing globalisation.

Innovation leads the way to world-class capabilities

Currently, there are two levels of exams:

Fundamentals

Introduction to financial and management accounting knowledge and skills.

Professional

Advanced skills and techniques as well as professional ethics.

In the future qualification, the Fundamentals level subjects will be referred to as 'Applied Knowledge' and 'Applied Skills'.

And the Professional level will become 'Strategic Professional'. Its innovative features are the 'Strategic Business Leader' and 'Strategic Business Reporting'. There will be 13 exams in total.

The new 'Ethics and Professional Skills module' also adds to our innovative exams to enhance our highly relevant qualification.

More on the qualification's three leading-edge initiatives:

Ethics and Professional Skills module

This pioneering approach develops the vitally important ethical behaviour and complete range of professional skills employers told us they need.

Strategic Business Leader case study exam

A truly innovative case study involving key competencies from strategy, leadership, governance and risk, to innovation and sustainable performance management.

Strategic Business Reporting exam

Taking reporting to a new level. Giving you the skills to confidently speak the language of business and explain reports and their impact to a wide variety of stakeholders.

Can't wait to get started? You don't have to.

Although these exciting innovations will all be in place by the September 2018 exam session, you needn't wait until they come into effect.

Begin your journey to a successful future with ACCA now and by the time these key changes have happened, you could be ready to take the Strategic Professional exams.

Starting your career? Changing your career? Either way, our timetable for the evolved qualification means you can get on with it and get ahead – with complete confidence and without delay.

Your constant in an ever-changing world

ACCA excels at keeping its qualification at the forefront of what employers need. Its standard of excellence and great reputation remain consistent as the qualification evolves to meet ever-changing needs.

What's it like studying with ACCA?

Flexible and supportive – these are the two words our students use to describe the experience of studying with ACCA. We make sure that whatever your lifestyle and commitments, there's a way with ACCA to reach your goals.

You can take a number of different routes – all of which train you through a potent combination of exams, ethics and experience.

Flexibility

You can study full-time – or part-time around work commitments. And we offer a number of ways to study too. You can either:

- find an ACCA-approved tutor, via our global network of Approved Learning Partners
- self study using ACCA-X, our high quality online learning programme
- learn through a combination of methods.

Support

Once you join, you'll find you have plenty of people to talk to and chat with online to keep you inspired and focused – whether you have a tutor or you opt for self-studying.

ACCA Connect is our 24-hour, seven day a week support service that's open year-round. You can contact Connect by phone, email or webchat – and a dedicated member of the team will be on hand to answer your questions. You can also contact your local ACCA office for support.

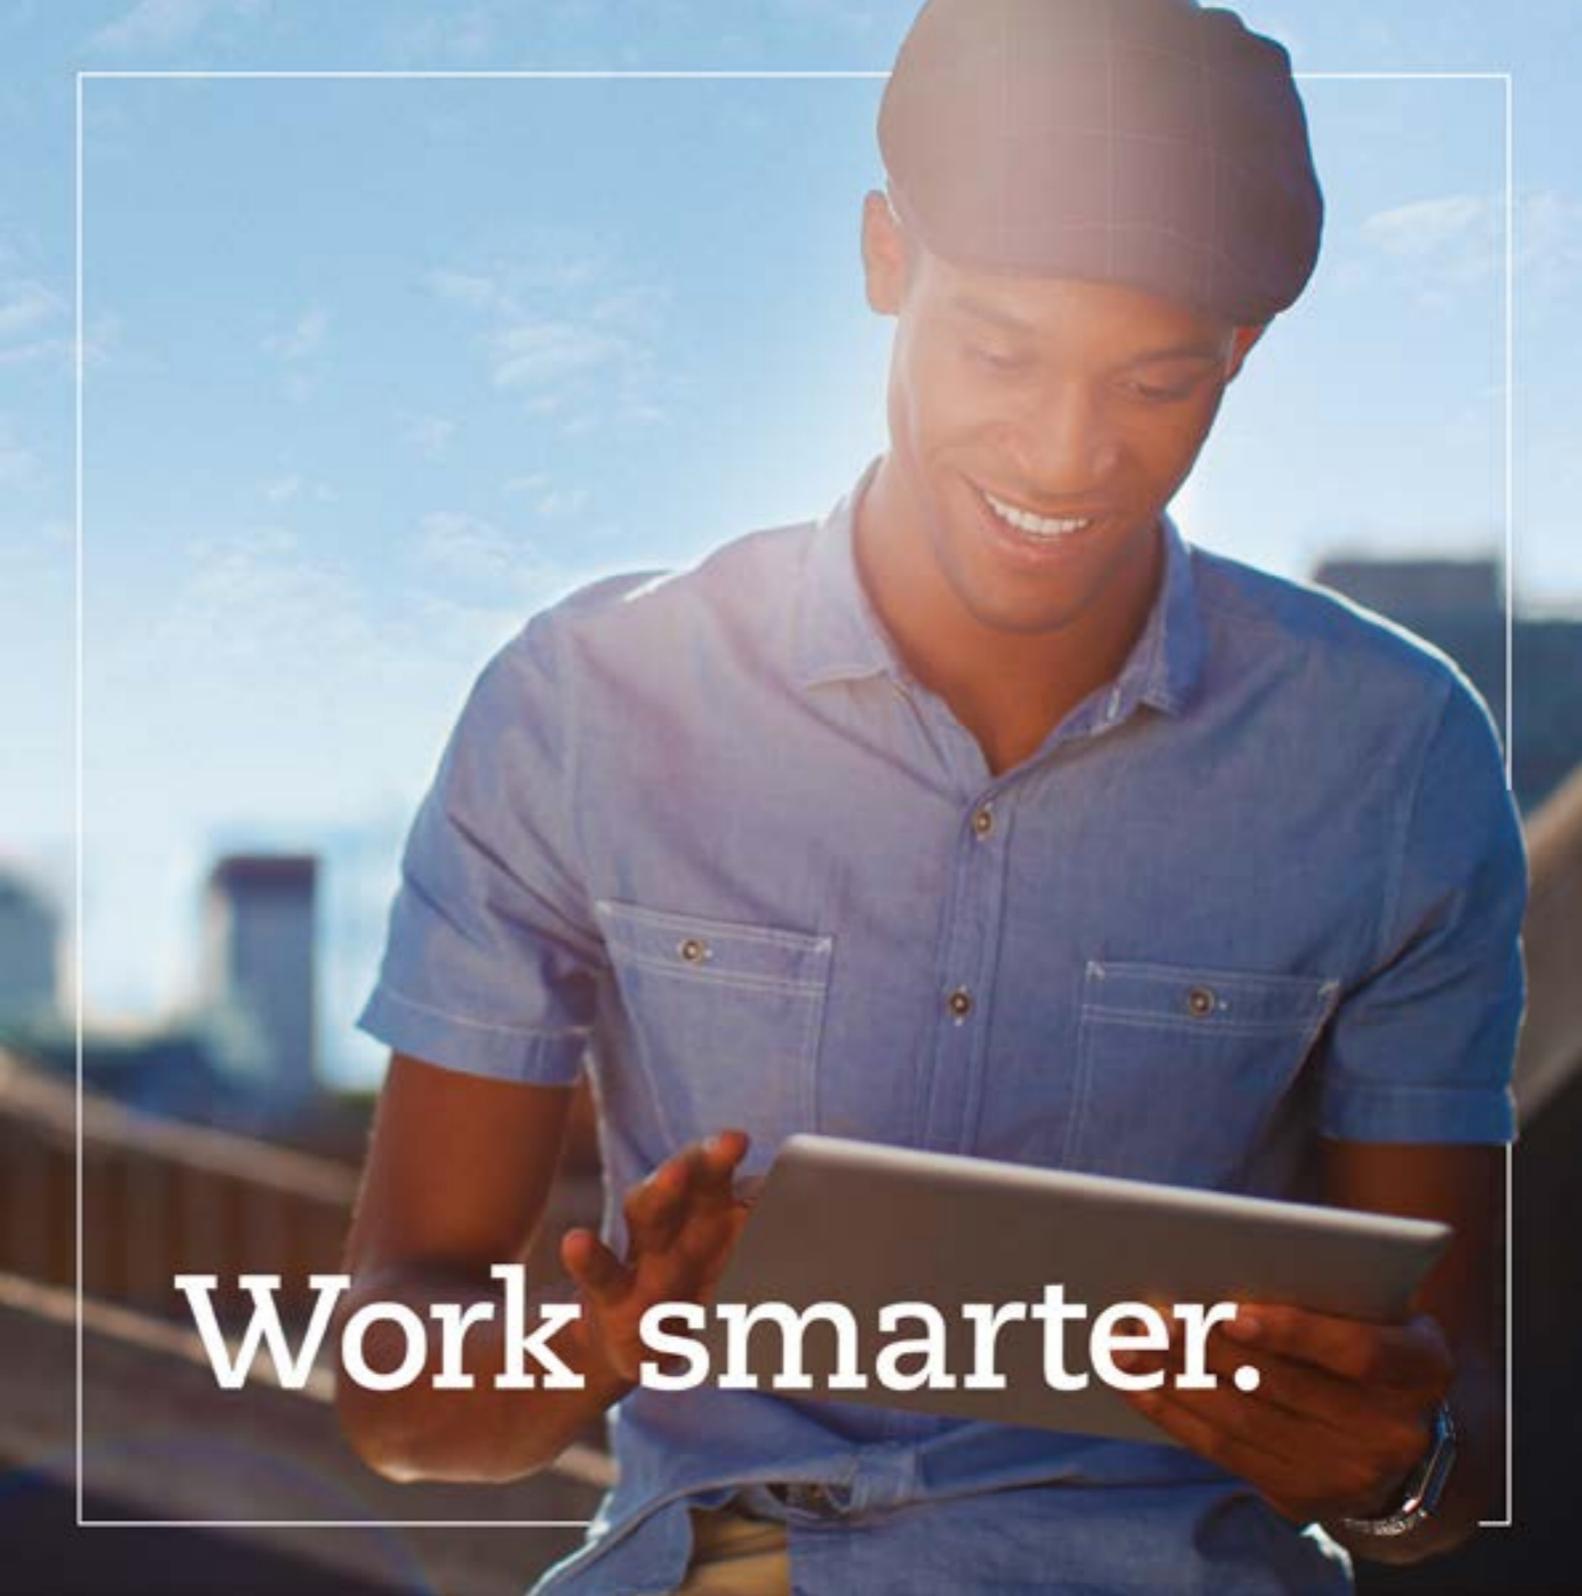

For encouragement, ideas and inspiration, you'll also be able to talk to your fellow students around the world through the ACCA virtual learning community. And for support with particular areas – like preparing for exams – you'll have access to fantastic resources on the ACCA website.

English not your first language?

No problem. We offer additional support with English language through our training partner, BPP.

They give you targeted support for each exam you take – and they'll give you the confidence of having up-to-date business English. And it's all free of charge.

How long does it take to complete the ACCA Qualification?

This depends on a number of factors, including the number of exemptions you can claim, the number of exams you take every year and what results you achieve. You'll also need to complete your practical experience and the Ethics and Professional Skills module to become an ACCA member.

ACCA's
unrivalled
network

Our whole approach is flexible and convenient – and our exam timetables are no exception.

When?

We offer four exam sessions every year so you can schedule your exams at a time and pace that suits you. You can choose to sit your exams in March, June, September or December.

Where?

We have over 501 exam centres in more than 148 countries – and if you live somewhere particularly remote, we may be able to arrange an alternative exam centre for you.

How?

Some of our exams are traditional paper exams. And currently, all of our Foundation exams – as well as the first four exams at Fundamentals level – are available as on-demand computer-based exams (CBE). You can sit these at any time of the year in any of our licensed CBE centres. With CBEs, you get your results instantly, and you can retake them as often as you need.

501 exam centres in 148 countries

323 quality-checked tuition providers

1,784 exemption accredited programmes from 804 universities

261 strategic partnerships

101 offices and centres in 57 countries

Move faster.

Into the workplace

Exams are important – but what really makes ACCA qualifications so valuable is that they're accompanied by real world experience.

Welcome to the world of PER – or your Professional Experience Requirement.

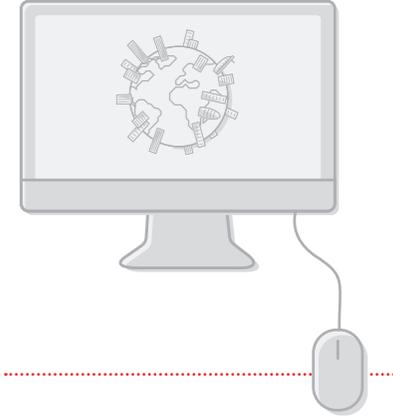

We set out clearly the skills and experience you need to develop and encounter in the workplace to make you a fully-rounded professional.

Your practical experience supervisor will help to assess how your day-to-day work and projects are helping you to get the experience you need to qualify. And of course, we'll be there, helping and supporting you at every step.
